Client Profile

Robyn & Robert Holland

In 1996 Robyn and Robert Holland bought a 5 acre property in Crows Nest near Toowoomba as a weekender. They ran an extension lead to power the shed which held not much more than a bed and a wood fired stove.

Looking for a hobby in retirement, and maybe a little income, the Hollands planted some grape vines and began their viticulture journey. They made the full time move to the Granite Belt in 2000 after living in Brisbane for 30 years, and in 2005 Holland Wines produced its first vintage of 1000 bottles.

The winery facilities expanded to include a cellar door and a lovely wisteria covered courtyard in which Robyn and Robert held wine tastings, morning and afternoon teas and other functions (all catered for by Robyn). The winery became a hidden gem in the area hosting locals, tourists, bus tours and even a memorable Irish hen's weekend. The winery also had a gift shop, beautiful gardens, peacocks and a huge collection of Arnott's biscuit tins. The wines themselves were often named after various relatives including the Callum Chardonnay and Ravishing Red and sold at local markets and festivals.

After 20 plus years of hard work building their very successful and popular business, Robyn and Robert made the decision in 2022 to sell up and move to the Glasshouse Mountains area. They are appreciating a quieter life and are enjoying exploring the Sunshine Coast with the Glasshouse Country Care social group.
